GAA's Social Media Policy and Guidelines

Social media plays an ever increasing and important role in the organisation and promotion of our Games. It provides an engaging forum through which the GAA community can connect.

The GAA Social Media Policy and Guidelines have been developed to inform our community about using social media, so people feel enabled to participate, while being mindful of the standards expected by the GAA and other entities such as the Data Protection Commissioner. The GAA Social Media Policy and Guidelines are available at the following website:

The contents provide practical guidance to allow all parties to benefit from the use of social media and to have fun online, while minimising potential risks and protecting everyone involved. It also gives practical guidelines and advice for Clubs and Counties on social media channels, illustrating many specific related risks and provides solutions. The information is designed to provide guidance to GAA Units and members on how to communicate appropriately and lawfully online.

It is important to recognise that each person is individually responsible for what they post online. The GAA and Man O War GFC does not accept responsibility for the online activities of individual members or GAA Units, nor can it accept responsibility for the actions or decisions of social media companies or platform owners.

Man O' War GFC is fully committed to supporting and implementing the GAA's Social Media Policy.

The club's Executive Committee will be responsible for ensuring the guiding principles outlined in this policy are implemented and followed by all club members.
